Barossa Village
people of our town

April was an extremely busy month for volunteers and residents in our region.

After the huge weekend that was Gather Round football at Lyndoch's Barossa Park, Easter was upon us. Volunteers were then involved with large Anzac Day services and participating in events as part of the Vintage Festival.

The Lyndoch Community Committee will be at the Sausage Sizzle stall as usual at the Lyndoch Community Market on 10 May. Feel welcome to come and ask us about becoming part of the volunteer team, either on a casual basis or as part of the committee. We love the place we live and being an active part of the community is important to us.

Please enjoy your community newsletter.

LYNDOCH HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The History Month activity arranged by the Lyndoch Historical Society will take place on Tuesday 20th May at 11.00 a.m. in the meeting room at the rear of the Lyndoch Library. An exhibition of the Historical Society's achievements during its fortieth year celebrations will be featured. The Society's Museum will also be open and there will be members available to provide assistance with family research as well.

A suggestion for the formation of an Historical Society for Lyndoch occurred at a community meeting on 31st May 1984. After several months of effort by a steering committee the inaugural meeting was held at the Lyndoch Primary School on Wednesday evening 31st October. The following persons were elected as committee members of the Lyndoch & District Historical Society –

G. & G. Fischer, M. & R. Chatterton, Mesdames M. Semmler, S. Gordon, and A. Hausler. At the conclusion of the meeting Gerald Fischer gave a talk entitled "The History Behind the Names LYNDOKH and BAROSSA" This was later published as the first pamphlet produced by the Society.

SOUTHERN BAROSSA MEN'S SHED

The Southern Barossa Men's Shed has been saddened by the recent passing of highly respected member Roger Edwards. Despite, sadly, not having been able to attend The Shed in recent times due to ill health, members remember a man of warmth, humour and integrity and who gave so much of his time to the Southern Barossa community. He will be greatly missed.

The Men's Shed is a concept which is growing in popularity and increasing in number in Australia and around the globe. It provides an outlet for men, much in the same way that the backyard shed has in Australian culture over many years. The Southern Barossa Men's Shed extends a welcome to men from all walks of life to attend our Shed. Without a strict format we foster fellowship and emphasise the importance of men enjoying the activities, feeling a sense of belonging and being part of a relaxed non-pressured group.

We encourage anyone who simply wants to turn up for 'a cuppa' and socialise while others may want to tinker, mend or create in the well equipped workshop. If you are curious to try new things someone is always on hand to help out. Making or repairing furniture or homewares or toys, mending and fixing motors, renovating bicycles, arts and crafts, all examples (but certainly not the limits) of the activities that can be undertaken at the Shed depending on the knowledge and skillset of the members. Projects and activities are also undertaken which benefit the community.

The SBMS have the pleasure and honour this year of providing the Gunfire Breakfast at the Williamstown Dawn Service to commemorate ANZAC Day this year.

The SBMS shed is located at the rear of the Wirraminna Care Little Shop of Treasures on Queen Street, Williamstown. Any enquiries relating to the shed, membership or the hire of the meeting room (attached to the workshop) can be directed to Glen Venning on 0409 675 937.

Green light for growth strategy

The Barossa Growth and Infrastructure Investment Strategy has been given the green light, paving the way for potential new supply of employment land at Nuriootpa as well as residential infill in Nuriootpa, Angaston and Tanunda.

Several proposals were shelved entirely, including increased building heights above current policies in main streets, developing reserves in Lyndoch and rezoning employment land in Angaston.

Williamstown wins for Best Town Float in Barossa Vintage Festival Parade, the Great Vintage Picnic float claimed the Vintage Fashion prize.

In perfect conditions the Barossa Vintage Festival Parade captivated thousands of spectators who lined the route between Nuriootpa and Tanunda on Saturday 26 April.

The 2025 award-winning Williamstown float was one of around 60 floats who participated in the parade which is known for being the longest parade in the Southern Hemisphere and a Barossa community tradition since 1949! This year's win backs up the 2023 Best Town Float award for the biennial Vintage Festival event.

On the Grapevine

With float participants all dressed as lumberjacks, the Williamstown presence celebrated the rich forestry history as well as showcasing everything the area has to offer such as fishing, kayaking and mountain biking.

Koalas, green thumbs and free native plants!

The Barossa Council is continuing its mission to build biodiversity in backyards by giving away more native plants to local property owners.

Residents can bring their rates notice to Barossa Bushgardens between 29 April and 30 June to access five free native plants per property as part of the popular initiative.

Limited to 400 people across the Council area, the native tubestock are offered on a first-in-first-served basis strictly during the promotion period – no early birds!

Mayor Bim Lange said the program, now in its fourth year, was in direct response to feedback from the community, with 4,500 plants given away in previous years.

"In addition to the planting work we have been undertaking, especially at Barossa Park, we want to keep encouraging people to plant natives in their garden as another way to intentionally and proactively make a difference," Mayor Lange said.

For those unable to visit Barossa Bushgardens on weekdays, residents can collect their free plants during the Autumn Plant Sale Day on Saturday, May 3.

Senior Environmental Officer, Kim Thompson said the event coincides with World Koala Day and Barossa Bushgardens, in collaboration with Barossa Wildlife Rescue, will be launching the new Food for Wildlife Gardens to celebrate.

"When grown, the plants in this garden will be regularly cut back to allow wildlife carers to pick feed for animals in a safe environment, reducing the need to collect the resource from our roadside vegetation," Kim said.

Show off your garden

The Barossa's Best Native Garden Competition returns to help acknowledge the region's finest green thumbs.

Avid gardeners, whether experienced or beginners, are invited to email images of how they are using native plants at home to bushgardens@barossa.sa.gov.au for a chance to win plants and some extra gardening goodies.

Competition entry details and more information about the native plant giveaway is available at Barossa.sa.gov.au

Calling all photographers

The Barossa Photographic Calendar competition is back, with both serious photographers and passionate hobbyists invited to capture the essence of the region with a click.

Now in its second decade, 13 images will be selected for the 2026 calendar which has become a tribute to all The Barossa has to offer, from its world-renowned food and wine to its breathtaking natural wonders, culture and charm.

Whether it's a shot of local craft, a historic building, or a scene from one of the many vibrant community events and festivals, all submissions are welcome.

"From the picturesque vineyards to our unique wildlife and rich history, we want this calendar to celebrate everything that makes the Barossa such a beloved destination," says Jo.

Adding to the prestige of the competition, all winning photographs will be displayed at the South Australian Living Artists (SALA) exhibition held at the Barossa Visitor Centre in August.

The exhibition also gives the public a chance to vote for their favourite image as part of the 'People's Choice' award, and the photographer receiving the most votes wins a $250 Barossa Made Wares & Food Pantry Voucher.

For full details on how to enter, including the competition's Terms and Conditions, visit the Barossa Council's official page at www.barossa.com/barossacalendarcompetition. Submissions close 5pm, 15 June.
