Here at The Grapevine we're happy to be celebrating Spring with an expanded production team of five enthusiastic and talented volunteers.

It take quite some time to produce our newsletter so this team will lighten the workload as well as introduce new ideas to make your local newsletter better than ever.

We didn't think this disclaimer was required but apparently it is:

The views expressed in this publication are not necessarily those of the editors or the Lyndoch Community Committee.

Please enjoy your community newsletter.

Barossa's creative vision

When Barossans were asked what arts, culture and heritage meant to them, their answers painted a vivid picture of a proud community that celebrates its people, creative passions and aspirations.

More than 350 people shared their thoughts last year during The Barossa Council's initial Barossa Arts, Culture and Heritage Strategy community engagement process. Those voices helped shape the draft strategy, out now for final community feedback.

"This is a strategic framework that will guide Council's role in supporting arts, culture and heritage well into the future, so we want to make sure it's right for our community," Mayor Bim Lange explains.

"We've heard what you've said, and this draft is the result. Now we have a final opportunity to make some small tweaks if needed, before the document is presented to Council in October."

Mayor Lange said the Barossa Creative Industries Centre is positioned at the heart of the new strategy as a hub for creative development and cultural engagement.

On the Grapevine

"It's where all six goals identified within this strategy align, where everything our community has identified as important about Barossa life, converges in one spectacular space."

But Mayor Lange said the strategy goes beyond the walls of an impressive new building. It reaches out across the entire region and builds on our proud history, rich First Nations Heritage and global reputation for food and wine.

"The strategy will guide future decisions and help build important partnerships that foster wellbeing, inclusion and connection across every corner of our community, while tying in neatly with both our Community Plan and recently endorsed Wellbeing and Inclusion Plan."

The community is encouraged to read the draft Barossa Arts, Culture and Heritage Strategy on Council's website or at one of its branch offices/libraries, before providing feedback either online via barossa.sa.gov.au; via email barossa@barossa.sa.gov.au or in writing to PO Box 867, Nuriootpa SA 5355.

Consultation closes 5pm, 16 September.

We're looking for budding writers who would like to contribute to the Grapevine about themselves, how and when you came to live in Lyndoch, a funny story perhaps, what you would like to see for our town into the future.

Perhaps you might be an avid gardener who may like to offer seasonal planting guides and how to make your garden flourish, a hairdresser who might like to provide some hair/beauty advice, a whiz in the kitchen who can give invaluable cooking tips and scrumptious recipes etc.

You get my drift, use your imagination and show your flair! Editorials from our advertisers would be great!

All contributions welcome, please be advised that stories will be published at the discretion of the editor. Contact us to discuss what you would like to do.

We can't wait to hear from you!

LYNDOKH HISTORICAL SOCIETY

FIRST NATURALIZATION CEREMONY AT LYNDOKH

The Institute was crowded when Barossa District Council Chairman, J.K. Barritt, conducted the first naturalisation ceremony to be held in Lyndoch on 16th March 1956. Twelve new citizens received certificates.

The Hon P.A. McBride, MHR, addressed the candidates prior to them being sworn in. Other speakers were Mayor of Gawler, E.C. Goodger, Mr C. Laucke MP, Mrs T. Hunt-Cooke and Mrs A.J. Leahy, CWA representatives.

The candidates, who received posies and buttonholes, were Mr Janis Atrens, his wife, Lenora, and children, Dace and Janis, and Mr Juris Bergfelds all of Cockatoo Valley, Miss Veronica Bergfelds of Fullarton, Mr Piotr and Mrs Anna Rybajlak of Lyndoch, Mr Voldemars Dulmanis, wife Emilija, and daughter, Ausma, of South Para, and Mr Fedele Baraglia of Williamstown. Supper, provided by the CWA ladies, concluded the evening.

Right: Mrs. Anna Rybajlak, Lyndoch

The Historical Society's next meeting will take place on Sunday, October 25 at 2.00 p.m. in the meeting room at the rear of the Lyndoch Library. The topic for the occasion will be turning the clock back one hundred years to 1926 to find out what life in Lyndoch was like.

SOUTHERN BAROSSA MEN'S SHED

The Men's Shed is a concept which is growing in popularity and increasing in number in Australia and around the globe. It provides an outlet for men, much in the same way that the backyard shed has in Australian culture over many years.

The Southern Barossa Mens Shed extends a welcome to men from all walks of life to attend our Shed. Without a strict format we foster fellowship and emphasise the importance of men enjoying the activities, feeling a sense of belonging and being part of a relaxed non-pressured group. It's a happy place.

Making or repairing furniture or homewares or toys, mending and fixing motors, renovating bicycles, arts and crafts, all examples (but certainly not the limits) of the activities that can be undertaken at the Shed depending on the knowledge and skillset of the members

We encourage anyone who wants to tinker, mend or create in the well equipped workshop. If you are curious to try new things someone is always on hand to help out. Making or repairing furniture or homewares or toys, mending and fixing motors, renovating bicycles, arts and crafts, all examples (but certainly not the limits) of the activities that can be undertaken at the Shed depending on the knowledge and skillset of the members.

We emphasise that the workshop is not the thing for all men, some may simply want a cuppa and a chat in our meeting room (with kitchen) and we encourage that. In fact when that bell rings, its coffee/tea/bikky break which is one of our most important functions, but just be warned of all the high minded banter that takes place (not), The bell ringer has the most onerous task in the place by the way.

Projects and activities are also undertaken which benefit the community.

On 30th July a group of S.B.M.S. members with wives and partners attended at Woodcarvers Haven at Eden Valley where we learned how a master goes about woodcarving while also enjoying Judith's coffee and scones. Their wines are excellent too. Michael's rocking horses are a sight to behold but the artform is dying unfortunately. His hunting tales were also fascinating. Thank you to Michael and Judith Mason for a very enjoyable morning.

OBSERVATIONS

by Lyn Doch

Lyndoch Op Shop

On 18th June 2025, there was an article in The Leader newspaper staying after 32 years at its current location, the Holy Trinity Anglican Church Opportunity Shop had closed.

That was a very sad day for all in the community of Lyndoch and the Barossa Valley. Many a visitor has passed through the doors in that time...

Move forward to 27 January 2026 and the new location of the shop at the Holy Trinity Church Hall on Altona Rd and the place is buzzing with the hype of many looking for that next bargain.

A breath of fresh air and a new lease of life for the Lyndoch community.

I certainly got a bargain myself recently that went on a long journey to Lyndoch. A $2 wet weather jacket in a carry case for hiking. I noticed it had a yellow sticker saying "Abbott Hall Art Gallery".

Abbott Hall Art Gallery is located in a heritage listed building in Kendal, Cumbria, United Kingdom.

That jacket travelled 16,330km to Lyndoch ... the stories it could tell, the places it has been...

The volunteers are very nice, accommodating and lovely to talk to and like me, you never know what you might find!

This is certainly the gem of the community in a great location in God's country.

Tell em' Lyn sent you!

Nestled in the heart of the Barossa Valley, God's Hill Wines crafts authentic natural Italian-style wines that honour generations of family winemaking traditions. We embrace natural winemaking, highlighting the true character of the unique God's Hill terroir in every bottle.

Ennia Cucina brings authentic Italian flavours to the Barossa Valley, specialising in:
• Neapolitan-style pizza • Traditional Italian pasta dishes • Authentic Italian cuisine

God's Hill Wines and Ennia Cucina offer a complete Italian food and wine experience, blending traditional winemaking with authentic cuisine. Each dish and wine pairing tells a story of heritage, craftsmanship, and the blend of Italian tradition with unique God's Hill terroir.
